

LANDSCAPE FEATURES LEGEND

A. WOODLAND GARDEN

- Shade tolerant woodland perennials and groundcovers planted in the native soil that has been amended with compost; planting plan to come.

B1. FIRST WELCOME SIGN

- Located at the divide in the driveway

B2. SECOND WELCOME SIGN ON TALL POLE

- Located behind the church.

C. STONE PATH

- Irregular bluestone with tight joints; large sizes, 2" thick, laid on 12" of drainage stone.

D. FLOWERING SHRUBS

- Leave space for roof snow.
- Plant shrubs that can be cut back if impacted by snow.

E. COMMERATIVE MONUMENT

F. STONE STEPS WITH METAL HANDRAIL

- Barre granite steps - unpolished.
- Smooth treads, rockface 6" risers.
- Metal handrails with posts on concrete piers; to be determined.

G. GARDEN ENTRANCE

- Flagstone Landing
- (2) granite markers, rectangular roughly 6"x6"x44" high; rock face sides.

H. ACCESSIBLE PATH - ADA COMPLIANT

- Well compacted gravel path with well compacted crushed dark-toned slate surface.

I. INNER SPACE WITH SIMPLE WATER FEATURE AND BENCHES

- Irregular flagstone patio; large sizes 2" thick, laid on 12" of drainage stone, tight joints.
- Center water feature, possibly a waist high boulder with a shallow bowl carved in the top. Water would be added manually; to be determined.
- (2-3) teak benches

J. STEPPING STONE PATHS THROUGH GARDEN

- Roughly 30"long x 18" wide flagstones to match the patio in I above.
- Laid on 12" of drainage stone.

K. BENCHES

- Teak

L. VEGETATIVE PROPERTY DEFINITION

- Native and hardy ornamental shrubs provide enclosure; planting plan to come.

M. BOULDER SEATS ALONG THE PATH WHERE APPROPRIATE

N. LEDGE GARDEN

- Expose ledge to determine where planting of draping groundcovers could occur; to be determined.

